

In this document I present two personalities that I take as a reference.

António José Duarte – My grandfather. A person how would always accomplish with merit and pride what he was proposed to. A working man. Thought me honesty, humbleness, sacrifice and generosity.

Galileu Galilei – The father of the scientific method. A methodical, rational and righteous man.